I have a dream
I have a dream that one day racism will end and we could all live in peace,
I have a dream that all people will be treated equally. No matter what their background, colour or gender.
I have a dream that all could be forgiven for mistakes that they have made.
I have a dream that a blanket of love will envelope all of the homeless people.
I have a dream that everybody will be accepted for who they really are.
I have a dream that we could mend all of the shattered hearts forever.
I have a dream that hope will conquer the hearts of everyone who has given up.
These are my dream.

I have a dream
I have a dream that one day we will all be equal.
I have a dream that one day it will all stop.
I have a dream that people will recognise each other as being just the same as them.
I have a dream that we will live in peace and harmony.
I have a dream racism will be taken over kindness.
I have a dream that colour will no longer matter.
